The Dickinson County Attorney's Office is pleased to be a part of the state of Iowa's new license reinstatement program. This program applies to drivers licenses suspended due to unpaid fines. In order to be eligible, the following conditions apply:

- *All tickets must be at least 90 days old
- *Any DOT civil and/or small claims judgments must be satisfied
- *Child support must be current
- *Proof of insurance and a first payment are required upon admittance to the program
- *Insurance must be maintained
- *Any applicant who has pending indictable criminal charges will not be considered until the charges have been resolved
- *Any out of state fines must be paid prior to admittance to the Iowa program

If you meet these qualifications, you may qualify for the Dickinson County Attorney's License Reinstatement Program.
